We have seen a tremendous influx in participation, meeting attendance, and overall unity since expanding to 5 nights a week. We have really seen a higher power at work, getting volunteers to open some nights of the week even though they aren't home group members-Big shout outs to Ash A & Sasha T for their weekly dedication to our home group. Our home group is 3 members strong currently and we are seeking additional support if you can please bring that info back to your home groups. Nonetheless, in August we will be transitioning to a 10pm meeting 7 days a week, offering more hours in the day to recover in Anchorage, and clearing up the current schedule conflict on weekend night(s). Our group conscience is excited in a vision that you can hit a meeting consistently at many times of the day every day & night of the week. We have been able to get all the existing debts settled at The Alano Club and established a healthy home group service structure that is UNUTY focused. We have $40 to donate to area tonight and look forward to participating in a greater capacity at the Area level. ILS Mike M
